

Down to Earth Pottery Classes and Policy

Experience the magic of creating a work of art with your own hands. Every piece is unique and personal to you. Relax and enjoy the peaceful art of wheel thrown pottery.

All classes are multilevel, whether you are brand new and need more instruction or experienced and continuing to develop your style, our small class size assures everyone the attention they need.

Classes are ongoing. Once you have taken a 4 week session you are entitled to keep your space until you decide to leave. All we ask is that you give us 2 weeks notice if you decide not to continue on.

Studio Policy

I know I hate policies too. But to keep law and order we need to have some ground rules.

- Please clean up your area, wheel, tools and anything else you have used. It is important to keep the studio as clean as possible to keep the clay dust to a minimum.
- Return all tools, paint brushes and clay back where they belong. Do not leave, any by the sink to dry.
- If you use the wedging table please sponge clean it after, do not brush it.
- Mop any areas you have splattered clay or glaze.
- Sweep up trimmings gently so as not to put dust in the air and sponge or mop any residue left by the dust pan. Please clean up trimming after done trimming all pieces and before moving on to anything else, ie throwing or glazing.
- Take name off boards after trimming and stack them with others, put plastic sheet away.
- When glazing be considerate to clean up drips and drops on the floor when it happens so they are not tracked through the studio or home to your carpet.
- Clean up drips and drops on glazing table before someone sticks their elbow in it or puts their pottery on it.
- Please make sure you wipe off any glaze from the bottom and the bottom 1/4 of sides. Pieces will not be fired if they are not cleaned of glaze.
- Please do not touch anyone elses pieces for any reason in any part of the process. I will move what needs to be moved. If you don't find a space just ask.
- Please conserve water, do not leave the water running.

- Please do not pour beverages down the double sink drain, we have a special trap for clay solids so they will not clog the pipes or go into the sewer system and if food or drinks settle they make it stinky and we don't like stinky.
- Do not throw any clay down the drain, put it in the designated can.
- It is advisable to wear long hair tied back so as not to spin your hair in your pot.
- Always wear play clothes because you will get dirty!
- Any unfinished pottery left in the studio for more than 60 days will be finished and used for studio purposes, such as glaze samples, trimming examples, etc. unless other arrangements have been made.
- Please make sure you can commit to the allotted time needed for each session because refunds will not be given after you take your first class.
- Parking is available on A1A.
- Studio Potters in addition to above
- Please remove your pieces from bats if possible and clean bats.
- Cover with plastic and label with tape on boards, please do not put tape on plastic.

Please call or email your reservation with payment method and time.
It is always best to leave a deposit or pay in full to hold your spot.
